

River Cottage is a traditional, 19th century stone cottage, which has been recently renovated. River Cottage offers a perfect tranquil base in a panoramic and beautiful location, perfect for you to explore the wonderful Scottish highlands with a host of activities such as golf, walking, mountain biking, fishing, skiing, canoeing/kayaking and horse riding virtually on your doorstep.

River Cottage has a fully fitted kitchen with all your utensils and dishes etc supplied. Both bedrooms and the lounge room of the cottage look upon wonderful views of Conan Valley, its river and beyond. There is a deck for you to take full advantage of this very special place.

The nearby Spa Village of Strathpeffer is only minutes away as is the picturesque fishing village of Ullapool nestled on the shores of Lochbroom, the highland capital of Inverness, the famous and beautiful Loch Ness and the site of the last hand-to-hand battle fought on British soil, the Culloden Battlefields with its visitor centre just to name a few.

Local shops, chemists, post office, pubs, a range of restaurants to suit all budgets and a 24 hour super market are within easy reach.

This is the perfect place to base yourself and experience the wonders of the Scottish Highlands and what they have to offer. Then relax in this home away from home in front of the warm cozy fire to reflect on your day.

